Dear Ms. Peterson:

The Honourable Josée Verner, Minister of International Cooperation and Minister for La Francophonie and Official Languages, appreciates receiving your letter of March 15, 2007, regarding safe drinking water in Canada.

Given that the subject of your message comes under the purview of the Ministers of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, the Environment and Health, I have taken the liberty of providing a copy of your letter to the offices of the Honourable Jim Prentice, the Honourable John Baird and the Honourable Tony Clement. I am confident that Ministers Prentice, Baird and Clement will give your concerns every consideration.

Thank you for bringing this matter to the attention of the Government of Canada.

Yours sincerely,

Mario Sanscartier
